The second meeting of the 2005-2006 year for the Nebraska Actuaries club was held on November 29th, at the Regency Marriott in Omaha.

The program was opened by President Mark Schreier. After welcoming the guests, Mark asked Andrew Ryba to moderate our panel discussion. The panelists were actuaries in non-traditional roles. The panel consisted of:

John Clark – Financial Representative from Northwestern Mutual
Paula Hodges, IT Manager at Allstate Financial
Roxann Brennfoerder, Customer Relations Officer at Ameritas
Steve Konnath, Market Segmentation Officer at Physicians Mutual
Steve Miller, Investment Officer at Mutual of Omaha

Questions from the audience were encouraged. After the presentation, Andrew Ryba presented restaurant gift certificates to the panelists of our meeting, thanking them for their discussion. Thanks to Andrew Ryba of Mutual of Omaha and Lynne Vittitoe of Woodmen of the World, for helping plan the meeting as members of the Program Committee and Arrangements Committee, respectively.

Club President Mark Schreier, Woodmen of the World, opened the business portion of the meeting. Mark introduced Paula Hodges, Secretary/Treasurer, who gave her report. Paula reported that we had 237 members and a bank balance of $10,615.16. Paula announced one new member. Guests at the meeting were introduced. She mentioned the Iowa Actuary Club all-day seminar which will be held on February 28th.

President Mark Schreier had additional announcements:

- The Nebraska Actuary Club board had voted to donate $1000.00 to the Actuarial Foundation in support of the “Rebuild Math Classrooms” effort, in the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
- The Annual report from the Committee for the Chair of Actuarial Science is now available on our www.n-a-c.org website.

The third meeting will be held on February 21st in Lincoln with a professionalism theme, and will include as a featured speaker, Bob Beuerlein, president-elect of the SOA. The final club meeting for the year will be the R&R meeting, to be held June 5th at Quarry Oaks golf course in Ashland.

There being no further new business, Mark thanked the speakers and the Program and Arrangement Committee members and adjourned the meeting.
