The first meeting of the 2007-2008 Nebraska Actuaries Club was held on October 9, 2007 at Tiburon Golf Club in Omaha

President Lance Grigsby opened the program. After welcoming the guests, Lance turned over the podium to program committee member Coleman Naughton. Cole introduced our three presenters, , Karen Rudolph, Bob Meilander and Max Rudolph.

Karen's presentation covered principles based approaches for statutory valuation of life insurance. She covered the Status of the Life Health Actuarial Task Force as well as a case study. Bob's presentation reviewed the principles based reserves discussion drafts of the Actuarial Standards Board. Lastly, Max gave an update on the AAA Economic Scenario Work Group. All three speakers entertained questions from the club members. Each speaker was presented with a gift from the club.

Club President, Lance Grigsby, Mutual of Omaha, opened the business meeting. He introduced Jennifer Wooster, Secretary-Treasurer, Ameritas who gave her report. She reported that the club had 219 members and 5 new members. She also reported a bank balance of $17,708.26 which was incorrect. The correct balance is $12,708.26. Jennifer then introduced the new members, recognized individuals who had passed an exam recently, and recognized individuals who had recently received an actuarial designation.

Lance introduced the board members as well as the program/arrangements committee members for the 2007-2008 year. He noted that R&R Day is tentatively scheduled for June 9th at Woodland Hills.

The next meeting will be scheduled for November of December.

The meeting adjourned.
