The third meeting of the 2007-2008 Nebraska Actuaries Club was held on Tuesday, March 25th, 2008 at Misty's in Lincoln.

President Lance Grigsby opened the program. After welcoming the guests, Lance turned over the podium to program committee member Jim Baker. Jim introduced our two presenters, Bruce Schobel, President of the Society of Actuaries and Cecil Bykerk, President-elect of the Society of Actuaries.

The title of their presentation was "Society of Actuaries Action Report". Bruce covered the following topics: Marketing and Market Development Plan, E&E Update, Inter-organizational Cooperation, CERA Credential, and ASA voting. Cecil covered the following topics: Role of Academia, Strategic Plan, Continuing Professional Development, Sections and IAA. He closed with a motivational speech on Volunteerism. Bruce and Cecil entertained questions from the members.

Club President, Lance Grigsby, Mutual of Omaha, opened the business meeting. He introduced Jennifer Wooster, Secretary-Treasurer, Ameritas, who gave her report. She reported that the club had a bank balance of $4,921.11 not including the CD. She also reported that the club has 3 new members. Jim thanked the speakers again and presented them each with a gift. Jim gave a report from the Scholarship Committee. There are 3 winners, and the committee is looking for a new member. Lance introduced Peggy Hart from Doane who introduced her 4 students in attendance. Lance then introduced Warren Luckner who along with Sue Vagts introduced the UNL students in attendance.

The next meeting will be R&R day, June 9th, 2008 at Woodland Hills in Eagle, NE

The meeting adjourned.
